Lesson 9: Ledger Lines

Ledger lines extend the staff upward and downward, to allow notes to be written beyond the five lines of the staff. The following shows examples of notes that can be written above and below the staff using ledger lines.

The image shows two musical staves. The left staff is a treble clef with notes on ledger lines: A (below 2nd line), B (below 1st line), C (below 1st space), D (below 1st line), G (below 1st space), A (below 1st line), B (below 1st space), and C (below 1st line). The right staff is a bass clef with notes on ledger lines: C (below 1st line), D (below 1st space), E (below 1st line), F (below 1st space), B (below 1st space), C (below 1st line), D (below 1st space), and E (below 1st line).

1. Draw a treble clef at the beginning of the staff and write the letter name of each note.
